

Empeople Credit Union Appoints Suzanne Tremble as Maine Market President

Financial services executive brings decades of experience to Empeople, an award-winning credit union voted “Best of the 207.”

(Westbrook, ME; September 12, 2025) — Empeople Credit Union announced today that Suzanne Tremble has been appointed as the credit union’s new Maine Market President. Tremble is the first in this new role, a strategic move to drive market growth and deepen community relationships across the state.

“We’re thrilled to welcome Suzanne, a Maine native, into this key leadership role,” said Kurt Lewin, President & CEO. “Not only does she have decades of financial services experience to help drive meaningful, strategic growth in Maine, she also has a deep-rooted connection to the state, which was extremely important to us in our search.”

Empeople Credit Union, a full-service financial institution with over 100 years of service to Maine’s communities, has established themselves as a trusted financial partner for households across the state. The credit union empowers members to reach their financial goals with market-leading rates on savings and loans, a five-star digital banking app, and one-on-one financial guidance.

Tremble, a banking executive with over 20 years of combined strategic corporate communications and financial service experience, most recently held the position of VP, Client Engagement & Business Development for Androscoggin Bank, and previously held numerous leadership positions at TD Bank, where she spent most of her career.

“It’s a privilege to step into this role at Empeople,” said Tremble. “Throughout my career, I’ve been passionate about helping people achieve financial empowerment, and I’m proud to bring that dedication to an organization that shares those values. Maine is my home, and I’m deeply committed to supporting the growth and prosperity of my community.”
